SUMMARY OF DUTIES:

This position is for an Intelligence Research Specialist in the Analysis & Liaison Division of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). The employee is assigned complex, critical and sensitive issues in relation to FinCEN's support of law enforcement operations in connection with the detection, prevention and investigation of money-laundering, terrorist financing and other financial crimes. Employs advanced research and analytical skills to draw inferences, develop hypotheses and prepare investigative or intelligence summaries and reports, some of which may be utilized to pursue further research on these issues. Analyses may focus on specific activities, individuals or businesses, types of businesses, geographic locations, or categories of criminal activity and may have a domestic or international perspective. Serves as a source of staff support, advice, coordination, and liaison to organizations seeking to utilize FinCEN resources or expertise to aid in cross- jurisdictional investigations, develop research approaches, enhance the quality of information exchanged, or resolve common problems. Prepares case summaries, reports, threat assessments, materials for publications, position papers, or other materials concerning program operations. Provides training and guidance to less senior staff members in the Division. Represents FinCEN in inter-agency working groups, committees and other interactions with officials of other organizations.

BENEFITS

FinCEN offers flexible work schedules, a comprehensive leave program, 10 paid holidays, financial assistance to employees who use public transportation to commute, in-house training, reimbursement for approved outside training, telework opportunities, and eligibility for performance awards. FinCEN also offers attractive health, life, and long-term care insurance programs, and the employee's health insurance contributions are out of pre-tax dollars. Newer employees are covered by a three-tier retirement plan that includes a pre-tax retirement contribution program with matching funds or, as applicable, continuance in the Civil Service Retirement System. The office is located in a modern commercial building with a health unit and a fitness center (employees pay fitness center fee). The Vienna office has free parking and shuttle service to and from the Dunn Loring Metro station. All employees are assigned individual state-of-the-art computers.

SECTION I: MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS REQUIREMENTS TO BE CONSIDERED FOR THIS POSITION:

Specialized Experience:

For GS-13: Applicants must have one year of specialized experience, at the GS-12 level or equivalent, that provided expertise in the research and analysis of Bank Secrecy Act and related data and experience in the analysis of critical important cases, systems, and/or trends and patterns associated with money-laundering, terrorism financing and other financial crimes.

For GS-12: Applicants must have one year of specialized experience, at the GS-11 level or equivalent, that provided expertise in the research and analysis of Bank Secrecy Act and related data and experience in the analysis of cases, systems, and/or trends and patterns associated with money-laundering, terrorism financing and other financial crimes.

U.S. Citizenship: Applicants MUST be citizens of the United States and, if selected, present proof.

Selective Service Registration: If selected, male applicants born after December 31, 1959, must certify that they have registered with the Selective Service System or are exempt from having to do so.

SECTION II: APPLICANTS WHO MEET MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS REQUIREMENTS WILL BE RATED UNDER THE FOLLOWING "EVALUATION CRITERIA":

1. Knowledge of the Bank Secrecy Act and the missions of FinCEN and other related agencies and how officials of relevant law enforcement, intelligence and foreign counterpart organizations interact to prevent, detect and investigate money laundering, terrorist financing and other financial crimes. (Applicants should address the nature of their knowledge and experience related to this factor.)
2. Expert knowledge and ability to conduct complex research and analysis of Bank Secrecy Act and related financial data using advanced research, analytical and evaluative systems and techniques to detect incidents and patterns of potential money laundering and terrorism financing. (Applicants should address the extent of their experience in the conduct of such research and analysis.)
3. Demonstrated ability to conduct liaison with representatives of domestic or international organizations to explain FinCEN's objectives, encourage cooperation, and develop strategies for conducting relevant research and analyses. (Applicants should address the nature of their representational experience and authority in interactions with officials of other organizations.)
4. Expert ability to prepare investigative analyses, issue papers, intelligence reports, recommendations, and other materials for publications related to money laundering, terrorism financing and other financial crimes, that incorporate hypotheses, analytical reasoning, narrative text, and recommendations with supporting documentation and graphic displays as appropriate. (Applicants should address their experience in developing these types of products, especially as related to money laundering, terrorist financing and other financial crime)

DO NOT use one narrative statement to address all of the evaluation criteria. Each criteria MUST be addressed separately and reflect your specific experience/education that you feel equips you with the knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform the duties of the position for which you are applying.

Note: For applicants rated under this announcement, one rating process will be applied to both status and non-status candidates.

Basis of Rating:

- Applicants will first be reviewed to determine if they meet the minimum qualification requirements in Section I.
- Those who do will be evaluated as to how well they meet the evaluation criteria in Section II.
- Qualified candidates will be assigned a score ranging from 70 to 100, and, as applicable, will be assigned additional points for veterans' preference.
- Applicants MUST provide detailed information related to the evaluation criteria in their application package in the form of clear, concise examples showing level of accomplishment and degree of responsibility.
- Applicants MUST address each of the evaluation criteria separately and attach it to their application/resume.
- This is a multiple grade level announcement. You should identify specifically which grade level(s) you wish to be considered for by indicating your choice(s) on your application package and addressing the appropriate evaluation criteria for each individual grade level(s).

If you do not address the evaluation criteria for each grade level you wish to be considered for, your application will not be considered for that grade.

APPLICATIONS THAT DO NOT SPECIFICALLY ADDRESS EACH OF THE EVALUATION CRITERIA WILL BE CONSIDERED AS INCOMPLETE AND WILL NOT RECEIVE FURTHER CONSIDERATION.

SECTION III: CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT FOR THIS VACANCY:

Security Clearance: This position has been designated national security Level IV, Special Sensitive. Applicants must possess a favorably adjudicated single scope background investigation, and have been awarded a Top Secret clearance or be willing to undergo a Single Scope Background Investigation (SSBI), and the SSBI must be favorably adjudicated. In addition, this position requires the applicant to be eligible to obtain access to sensitive compartmented information (SCI). Failure to successfully meet these requirements will be grounds for termination. Although individuals may be appointed prior to completion or updating of a full personal history SSBI, and certification of SCI eligibility, continued employment with FinCEN is contingent upon satisfactory completion of the SSBI, and certification of SCI, the results of which fully meet the FinCEN's special employment criteria. All employees are subject to satisfactory completion of periodic reinvestigation and a continuing life style in conformity with applicable national and FinCEN directives. Any unfavorable information developed during an investigation or other official inquiry may result in termination of employment in accordance with established security policy and procedures.

Personal Identity Verification Credential: In accordance with Homeland Security Presidential Directive 12 (HSPD-12), the selectee(s) must be eligible to receive a Personal Identity Verification (PIV) credential. If selected, you must:

1. Present two forms of identification, of which at least one must be a valid Federal or State government issued picture ID. For a list of acceptable identification, visit <http://uscis.gov/graphics/formsfee/forms/files/i-9.pdf>;
2. Receive a favorable background check which includes a successfully adjudicated FBI criminal history record check (fingerprint check) and a National Agency Check with Inquiries (NACI) or equivalent background investigation; and
3. Maintain eligibility for a PIV credential during your employment with the Department of the Treasury, Financial Crimes Enforcement Network as described above.

Failure to comply with the PIV credential process and if unable to verify the applicant's identity, may result in the loss of consideration for employment.

Drug Screening: This position is a Testing Designated Position. Satisfactory completion of the drug test is a condition of employment in this position and incumbents of this position will be, thereafter, subject to Random Drug Screening.

Probationary Periods: Employees who have not already completed one will need to successfully complete a one-year probationary period. Certain appointments may require the completion of an additional probationary period. Separate and apart from the general probationary period, individuals selected for supervisory positions will need to complete a one-year supervisory probation period, including appropriate supervisory training courses.
